An Exceptional Country Residence in a Truly Private Valley Setting

Set deep within the rolling countryside of the prestigious Stalbridge Estate, Dairy House is a rare opportunity to secure a substantial, four-bedroom detached home in an enviably secluded position. Surrounded by uninterrupted panoramic views and complete tranquillity, this is country living without compromise.

Approached via its own peaceful setting in the valley, the property immediately impresses with its scale, privacy and sense of permanence. This is not just a house — it is a proper family home with presence. Space Designed for Real Living

Inside, the accommodation is both generous and versatile, perfectly suited to modern family life:

- A large, characterful kitchen/breakfast room featuring a Rayburn — the true heart of the home
- Two substantial reception rooms, including a cosy sitting room with log burner
- A spacious rear entrance hall ideal for country living. Separate utility/boiler room
- Dedicated office and extensive storeroom — perfect for home working or additional storage
- Upstairs offers four well-proportioned bedrooms:
 - A superb master suite with en-suite bathroom
 - Two large double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes
 - One generous single bedroom with fitted storage
- A well-appointed family bathroom with separate shower
- Every room enjoys natural light and views across the surrounding countryside, reinforcing the sense of peace and privacy throughout.
- Exceptional Outdoor Space
 - The outside space is as impressive as the interior:
 - Separate vegetable garden
 - Greenhouse and shed
 - Charming front veranda
 - Ample private parking

For those with equestrian interests, stables and an adjoining paddock are available by separate negotiation — a rare and valuable addition in such a desirable estate setting.
