£1,300 PCM

A bright and spacious linked-detached home offering three double bedrooms, set in a popular residential area where town and country meet. The property is approximately fifteen years old and has been very well maintained, providing comfortable and modern living throughout.

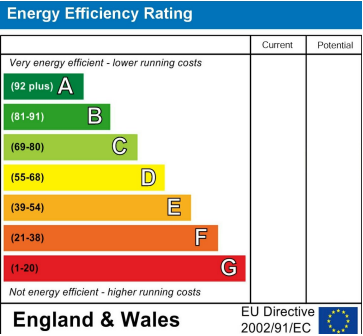

The home benefits from a remote-controlled electric door to the carport for added security, along with a landscaped garden that creates an enjoyable outdoor space. Additional features include uPVC double glazing and attractive Oak flooring in the main reception areas.

This well-designed property offers generous room sizes, a practical layout, and a great location close to countryside and riverside walks, schools for all ages, and convenient access to the town centre. An ideal home for tenants seeking a quality property in a desirable area.
