Guide Price
£550,000

Set along a quiet rural lane in the sought-after hamlet of Broad Oak, this well-presented detached bungalow occupies a private position with open countryside views to both the front and rear. Surrounded by mature gardens and neighbouring fields, the property offers a peaceful lifestyle with a strong sense of space and privacy, while remaining within convenient reach of nearby villages and town amenities.

The accommodation is well arranged and thoughtfully proportioned, providing two reception rooms and three bedrooms, making the property equally suited to full-time living or those seeking a comfortable rural retreat. The sitting room is a particularly welcoming space, centred around a log burner which creates a warm and cosy focal point, ideal for cooler months while also adding character to the room. Large windows allow plenty of natural light and frame views across the gardens and surrounding countryside.

A separate dining room provides flexibility for entertaining or everyday living, while the kitchen is fitted with traditional shaker-style units and stone worktops, with integrated appliances and views across the rear garden and fields beyond. A valuable addition is the separate utility room, offering practical space for laundry and storage and helping to keep the main kitchen area uncluttered, a feature often sought after in bungalow living.

The property has been carefully maintained and improved by the current owners, including redecoration throughout, a gas boiler installed approximately three years ago, a water softener and the replacement of some radiators, ensuring a comfortable and well cared for home.

Outside, the gardens are predominantly laid to lawn with areas of patio for seating and entertaining. Mature planting and established boundaries provide privacy, while the open countryside outlook enhances the rural setting and creates a calm and attractive outdoor space.
