Bursting with personality and rich in history, this utterly unique detached cottage offers over 2,000 sq ft of beautifully blended living space, combining early 19th-century charm with a sympathetic extension that enhances both flow and function.

Set in approximately 0.6 acres of enchanting grounds, the property enjoys a semi rural setting backing onto open fields. The gardens are a true delight, with a mix of formal landscaping and a flourishing orchard, plus a range useful outbuildings—perfect for storage or future conversion.

Inside, the home is as spacious as it is welcoming, featuring four generous double bedrooms, a study or hobby space, a family bathroom, and an additional ground floor shower room.
