Imagine coming home to a quietly confident neighbourhood in Oakworth - a well-established modern setting that feels settled and friendly from the moment you arrive. This three-bedroom detached home has been thoughtfully finished throughout, and it shows.

Step inside via the entrance porch and you'll instantly feel the calm of a house that just works. The front living room is your space to exhale - generous enough for the whole family to spread out, yet easy to make it feel cosy at the end of the day.

The real heart of the home is at the back. The open-plan kitchen and dining area is where mornings happen, where homework gets done, and where friends linger after dinner. Sleek high-gloss units, integrated appliances and plenty of worktop space make cooking a pleasure rather than a chore. When the sun comes out, the French doors swing open and your kitchen becomes part of the garden - effortless indoor-outdoor living. A ground-floor WC keeps the practicalities covered.

Upstairs, three well-sized bedrooms give everyone their own space. The main bedroom faces out over the Worth Valley - those views make getting up that little bit easier - and a private en-suite means no queuing in the morning. The other two rooms flex easily around your life, whether that means kids' rooms, a home office, or space for guests. A contemporary family bathroom with an over-bath shower serves them all.

Outside at the front, a driveway fits two cars comfortably, with a single garage alongside for storage or a workspace.

The rear garden is properly usable - paved patio, lawn, raised seating area, all enclosed so children and pets can roam freely. Summer evenings sorted.

Oakworth and Keighley are both on your doorstep for everyday needs, with good schools, open countryside and transport links close at hand. This one is ready to move straight into. Come and see it.
