88 Church Street

Oakworth, Keighley, BD22 7PP

Offers Over £170,000

A well-presented two bedroom cottage occupying a pleasant position in the heart of the popular village of Oakworth. Having undergone significant modernisation by the current owners within the last two years, the property now offers contemporary fixtures and fittings throughout whilst retaining its characterful cottage appeal.

The ground floor provides an open-plan living and kitchen area, creating a sociable and versatile living space. To the first floor are two bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The property is particularly notable for its outdoor space. To the front is an attractive low-maintenance cottage-style garden. To the rear, the garden extends to approximately 36 metres in length and is arranged across three sections: a patio area, a generous lawned section, and a further tier laid with slate chippings - providing a varied and practical outdoor space well suited to entertaining.

Oakworth is a sought-after village offering a well-regarded primary school, local shops, and everyday amenities. Regular bus services provide convenient access to Keighley town centre. The village is also home to Oakworth Station on the historic Keighley & Worth Valley Railway.

The property would suit a range of buyers, including first-time purchasers and those seeking a buy-to-let investment. Early viewing is strongly recommended to avoid disappointment.
