LOCATION

Number 6 Oxcars Avenue enjoys a highly sought-after location on the edge of the popular Fife town of Burntisland. A delightful seaside setting on the south coast of Fife, Burntisland is well-connected to Scotland's capital and beyond. The town is a historic Royal Burgh, a vibrant community, renowned for its award-winning sandy beach, 15th-century Rossend Castle, traditional summer fair and the prominent Fife coastal landmark of Binn Hill. Burntisland lies on the 116-mile long Fife Coastal Path and is well-served by a good range of local amenities with shopping for everyday requirements including a number of popular pubs and restaurants, leisure centre with indoor swimming pool and local golf course. Nearby Dalgety Bay, City of Dunfermline and Kirkcaldy offer a wider range of amenities where major supermarkets can also be found.

The primary school has superb modern facilities and is well regarded, while the nearest secondary school is in Kirkcaldy. There are a number of private schools within easy reach including Dollar Academy and a number of highly rated Edinburgh schools (easily accessible by train) as well as St Leonards in St. Andrews.

As well as a train station with regular services into Edinburgh making for an easy commute, regular bus services and excellent road links via the M90, just 8 miles to the west, makes Burntisland an ideal home to many commuters working in the larger local towns across the Central Belt. The area boasts many beautiful outdoor spaces, golf courses, walking and cycling routes to enjoy and within easy reach of other lovely East Neuk villages & towns of Fife, such as Aberdour, Anstruther and St. Andrews.
