Offered to the market with the benefit of no onward chain this end-terrace period cottage enjoys the most convenient location in the heart of Chepstow’s historic town centre, thus offering you easy walking access to local bus station, railway station, schools, shops and other amenities. The town itself is also well located with the M48 motorway junction bringing Bristol, Cardiff and Newport within commuting distance.

The property has been well looked after and is presented to a good standard with attractive living room, and kitchen/breakfast room with good range of modern storage units with built-in appliances to the ground floor with large double bedroom, a further guest bedroom and a contemporary shower room to the first floor. The super feature is the garden to the rear, leading from the house into a courtyard with a useful store room with terrace above and lawned area.

Viewings are highly recommended.
