Oslo comprises an architect designed, individually built chalet bungalow occupying an enviable edge of village location in the sought after hamlet of Mynyddbach which adjoins the well renowned village of Shirenewton. Both villages enjoy facilities to include recreation hall, three public houses as well as a primary school. The nearby centre of Chepstow, located approximately 4 miles from the village provides a good range of shopping facilities along with access to the M48 motorway junction.

The stylish accommodation offers flexible living, comprising entrance porch to reception hall, attractive living room with central fireplace and wood burning stove opening through to the combined kitchen/family/dining room, above which is a mezzanine bedroom, with further master bedroom and en-suite to the ground floor. To the first floor features an additional guest bedroom and bathroom. The property stands in pretty gardens with ample parking. Viewing is highly recommended.
