Offered to the market with the benefit of no onward chain, this individually designed detached bungalow occupies a very generous level plot on the quiet no through Black Rock Road within this desirable village location. The property will no doubt suit a variety of markets and offers deceptively spacious yet versatile living accommodation briefly comprising entrance hall, well-proportioned lounge, dining room, conservatory, kitchen, utility room, principal bedroom with en-suite WC, second double bedroom, third bedroom/study and a modern shower room. Further benefits include a sizeable private block paved driveway to the front, a single garage and beautiful south-westerly facing gardens to the side and the rear. In need of some modernisation this presents a fantastic opportunity to acquire a sizeable bungalow with the option to reconfigure to create fantastic open plan contemporary kitchen/ living spaces and indeed to potentially extend upwards or to the rear, of course depending on requirements and the necessary consent. Situated on a peaceful no through road within walking distance to Black Rock picnic site. The property is within easy reach of schools and amenities in both Caldicot and Chepstow as well as retaining excellent motorway links for the everyday commuter.
