The property comprises a recently constructed detached family home occupying a very pleasant position on the popular Brunel Quarter development, located in the heart of the historic town of Chepstow thus offering easy access to local supermarkets such as Tesco and Marks & Spencer as well as railway and bus stations. Commuting via the M48 also brings Cardiff, Newport and Bristol within easy reach. The vendors have presented this house to a very high standard, having updated the kitchen and added an attractive terrace to the rear garden.

The accommodation briefly offers to the ground floor: reception hall with WC off, spacious living room, well-appointed kitchen with family/dining room leading off along with utility room. To the first floor a principal bedroom with en-suite shower room, three further bedrooms and a family bathroom. The property stands in well-tended front and rear gardens with side driveway, EV charge and a single car garage.
