LOCATION

Tamerton Foliot is a historic village located on the north western edge of Plymouth, Devon, England. Despite being incorporated into the city of Plymouth in 1951, it has retained much of its traditional village charm and character. The village is situated near the confluence of the River Tamar and River Tavy, offering scenic views and access to natural beauty. The area offers various walking trails, such as the AONB Discovery Trail, which starts at the village green near the Kings Arms pub. The location is well positioned for buyers that are looking for a Village feel but at the same time being commutable to Derriford and Nuffield hospital and Plymouth City Centre.
