LOCATION

Found on the north eastern outskirts of the town of Tavistock, occupying a semi-rural position with far reaching views across farmland looking towards, Grade I Mount Kelly College in the distance. Tavistock providing for an excellent range of day to day services. Dartmoor on the doorstep and easy access northwards to the A38 and southwards towards Plymouth.

SUMMARY

A beautifully restored 1930s detached bungalow, thoughtfully extended and comprehensively refurbished to a high standard, occupying a glorious semi-rural position on the outskirts of Tavistock with far-reaching countryside views and glimpses of the stunning Grade I listed Mount Kelly.

The property has undergone an extensive professional refurbishment programme, including a substantial extension completed with full planning permission and Building Regulations approval. Improvements include a remodelled internal layout, complete re-plumbing, new boiler and central heating system, full rewire, and high-quality fixtures and finishes throughout. Further benefits include gas central heating and two externally vented, Alexa-controlled air conditioning units.

The welcoming entrance hall provides excellent built-in storage cupboards.

The elegant lounge enjoys lovely long-distance views and features an attractive focal fireplace with remote-controlled gas fire.

At the heart of the home is a spacious Wren fitted kitchen/dining room with integrated high-specification Neff appliances, including a full-width induction hob, externally vented extractor fan, dishwasher, and double oven incorporating steam and self-cleaning functions.

There are two generous double bedrooms.

The property is exceptionally well appointed with a luxurious large bathroom featuring an extra-long bath, recessed television, Bluetooth-controlled ceiling speakers, large Mira shower, Japanese smart WC, radiator, and heated towel rail. In addition, there is a modern fitted shower room with shower WC and wash basin.

Externally, the property benefits from new roof coverings and external redecoration. Security has been carefully considered with an eight-camera system and multiple automated exterior lights.

The property offers excellent private parking for three vehicles together with delightful lawned gardens.

A superb feature of the home is the impressive 26ft bar and outdoor seating area, ideal for alfresco entertaining, alongside an 18ft insulated gym with multiple power points and vented air conditioning, plus a 12ft workshop/store.

A comfortable and stylish home in a highly desirable setting, ideally suited for retirement living.
