

Glandy & The Former Tabernacle Baptist Chapel, Moylegrove

Offers In The Region Of £260,000

COTTAGE & FORMER BAPTIST CHAPEL

R K Lucas & Son are delighted to offer to the market Glandy & The Former Tabernacle Baptist Chapel situated in a central location within the small north Pembrokeshire village of Moylegrove, approximately 6 miles west of Cardigan, and lies within the picturesque Pembrokeshire Coast National Park. The locality offers a peaceful, rural atmosphere, and Moylegrove itself is a quiet and charming village.

The Chapel building is positioned at a low level within the village, adjacent to a small stream. The site is relatively flat and features a former small Baptistry pool. A date stone on the front elevation indicates the Chapel was originally constructed in 1894. The front boundary is defined by a stone wall with wrought iron railings, with two central gates opening onto a flat lawned area and a pathway leading to the Chapel entrance.

Glandy Cottage sits to the rear of the Chapel and comprises a traditionally built two-bedroom cottage with additional land extending to approximately 0.6 acres. Although in need of some remedial works, both the cottage and former Chapel offer a rare opportunity for renovation and development in a truly idyllic setting.

Covering the whole of Pembrokeshire from offices in Haverfordwest and Milford Haven.

Outside

To the rear of the Chapel, there is a traditional two-bedroom cottage of solid construction in need of remedial works. The cottage, along with the Chapel, sits within approximately 0.6 acres of land, offering scope for renovation and further development (subject to any necessary consents).

The entrance drive opens into a large, mainly lawned area, part of which borders the adjoining stream, creating a peaceful and attractive setting. Attached to the rear extension is a block-built store/workshop, which also houses a central heating boiler.

Beyond the garden, the grounds rise gently to a raised, lawned sun terrace. From here, the land continues upward to a further gently sloping lawn to the east, opening to a paddock beyond.
