Located within half a mile of Horley town centre, this charming double-fronted detached period family home offers generous accommodation across two floors, combining character features with modern conveniences and space for a growing family.

A spacious entrance hall with wood-effect flooring opens into the well-appointed lounge, with its box bay window overlooking the front, feature fireplace and working wood-burning stove. The dining room also has a box bay window and feature fireplace, along with a connecting door to the kitchen.

The kitchen has a modern feel, with matching cream wall and base units, space for appliances, a Butler sink and a side window. Beyond the kitchen is a conservatory with patio doors opening onto the rear garden. The ground floor also includes a separate utility room with plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer, plus a cloakroom. A fourth bedroom, currently offering flexible use as a guest bedroom or family room, has wood-effect flooring and patio doors leading into the conservatory.

Upstairs are three double bedrooms, all with fitted wardrobes. The principal bedroom has a generously sized en-suite shower room, while the spacious family bathroom includes a white suite, separate shower enclosure and period feature fireplace.

To the rear is a mature garden with paved and timber-decked seating areas, established flower beds and side access to the front. A detached timber-clad garden office, with heating and air conditioning, provides a comfortable year-round workspace. A separate storage room benefits from electricity, lighting and shelving. To the front, mature hedging screens the house from the road, and there is off-road parking for several vehicles.

The property is conveniently located for Horley town centre, transport links and a range of local schools
