Herontye House is a magnificent country house of local historical importance that offers a rich heritage.

The property was built in 1912 and was converted into nine luxury apartments at the millennium. The architects intended the property to have an Elizabethan look with mullion windows and mellow Horsham stone elevations and roof. The property was sold in 1921 to Admiral Sir Charles Madden, Commander-in-Chief of the Atlantic fleet and eventually First Sea Lord. Five years later he sold it to the Hon. John Nivison, later Baron Glendyne.

Nestled in the market town of East Grinstead, this exquisite two-storey apartment offers a unique blend of historic elegance and modern luxury. Originally built in 1912 as a former country manor house, the property has been thoughtfully converted into nine luxury apartments, each retaining an abundance of period features that evoke a sense of timeless charm.

Spanning an impressive 1,748 square feet, this spacious apartment boasts two well-appointed bedrooms and two stylish bathrooms, providing ample accommodation for both relaxation and entertaining. The generous reception room is perfect for hosting guests or enjoying quiet evenings at home, while the high-quality finishes throughout the property ensure a comfortable and sophisticated living experience.

The apartment is set within expansive grounds of circa six acres, offering a tranquil and secluded environment, yet it remains conveniently close to local amenities, making it an ideal choice for those seeking both peace and accessibility. The gated driveway adds an extra layer of security and exclusivity, while the garage with an door provides convenient parking or storage along with allocated parking provision.

This property is a rare find, combining the allure of its historic roots with the comforts of contemporary living. Whether you are looking for a serene retreat or a stylish home close to the heart of East Grinstead, this apartment is sure to impress. Don't miss the opportunity to make this exceptional residence your own.

The property is share of freehold with 974 year remaining on the lease. A monthly service charge of £425 applies and there is no ground rent.
