This beautifully presented and extended detached family home occupies a quiet cul-de-sac setting on the popular Langshott development. Offering generously proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors, the property combines versatile living space with a well-maintained interior and attractive garden, making it an appealing choice for families seeking room to grow.

An inviting entrance hall sets the tone, incorporating a useful cloakroom and providing internal access to the integral garage. The well-appointed lounge is positioned to the front of the property, where a large window allows natural light to fill the room. To the rear, the separate dining room connects with the lounge through French doors and opens into a modern conservatory, creating a pleasing progression of reception spaces. With its cosy atmosphere and direct access to the garden, the conservatory offers an additional area in which to relax or entertain.

The extended kitchen is a particularly useful feature, providing a dual-aspect arrangement that enhances the sense of light and space. It is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units, with space for a selection of appliances, complementary splashback tiling and wood-effect flooring. A door provides direct access to the outside, adding to the practicality of the layout.

The first floor offers four bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with fitted wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. The remaining bedrooms are served by a family bathroom, fitted with a white suite, part-tiled walls and a frosted window to the front.

The rear garden has been attractively maintained, with a central lawn bordered by well-stocked flower beds and a characterful timber-framed greenhouse. Side access leads to the front of the property, where off-road parking is available in addition to the integral garage.

Langshott remains a popular residential location, appealing to a broad range of buyers thanks to its convenient setting and local amenities.
