About the property

Occupying an enviable position overlooking an open greensward, this impressive four-bedroom detached home offers both privacy and an attractive outlook. Constructed approximately 11 years ago, the property combines modern efficiency with everyday convenience, benefitting from solar panels with a feed-in tariff, CCTV, an electric roller-door single garage and extensive parking for three vehicles plus a motorhome or caravan.

The accommodation flows seamlessly throughout the ground floor, beginning with a dual-aspect living room extending from front to back and opening into a conservatory fitted with underfloor heating — creating a comfortable year-round space whilst overlooking the garden. The fitted kitchen is complemented by a dining area with room for a family table, while a practical utility area is positioned to the rear. There is also a WC.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom features an en suite shower room. Three further bedrooms are serviced by a family bathroom.

The setting is ideal for those who enjoy the outdoors, with numerous scenic walks close-by — perfect for dog owners — while Hadleigh's charming High Street, with its selection of independent shops, cafés and amenities, is reached on foot in around 15 minutes.

Outside

The rear garden is attractively landscaped with maintenance-free artificial lawn alongside a selection of shrubs and flowering plants, which provides an element of seclusion — a tranquil space for outdoor dining or quiet relaxation. Practical features include hot and cold outdoor taps, side access, a storage shed and a personnel door into the single garage. The property is accessed via a shared driveway from the road which leads to this property.
