The Cottage, White Hermitage Church Road, Old Windsor, Windsor, SL4 2JX

Nestled in one of Old Windsor's most sought-after and historic settings, this charming three-bedroom detached period cottage enjoys a truly exceptional location behind the 12th-century Church of St Peter and St Andrew and just moments from the banks of the River Thames. Extending to approximately 1,600 sq. ft., including outbuildings, the property beautifully blends period character with modern comforts, creating a warm, welcoming and versatile home.

The accommodation offers a wealth of charm and individuality, making it ideally suited to families, professionals, or those seeking a unique riverside retreat. Conveniently positioned close to local amenities and highly regarded schools, the property enjoys the perfect balance of tranquillity and accessibility.

Rich in history, the cottage is believed to occupy the site of an original Royal Chapel that predates Windsor Castle, providing a rare opportunity to own a home of genuine historical significance. Combining picturesque surroundings, riverside living and an enviable village location, this is a truly special property offering a lifestyle as unique as its heritage.
