Oak Cottage, 14A Meadow Way, Fifield, Maidenhead, SL6 2PE

Oak Cottage is a beautifully bespoke four bedroom detached family home, built in 2014 and set within the picturesque hamlet of Fifield, offering stylish living, generous accommodation and south facing gardens. Perfect for those wanting countryside surroundings without sacrificing everyday convenience.

Property Summary

Oak Cottage is a beautifully bespoke four bedroom detached family home, tucked away in the picturesque Berkshire hamlet of Fifield and offering the perfect blend of countryside living and everyday convenience.

Finished to an impressive standard throughout, the heart of the home is the superb country style kitchen and living area, with doors opening directly onto the garden and creating a fantastic sociable space for family life and entertaining.

There are three versatile reception areas in total, including a generous front reception room currently used as a games room, while a separate study provides the ideal space for those working from home.

Outside, the south facing rear garden is made for summer entertaining and currently features a freestanding swimming pool, which can easily be removed if a larger lawned area is preferred. A pergola provides a welcome shaded seating area during the warmer months.

Upstairs, all four bedrooms are well proportioned, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an en suite shower room. Three of the four bedrooms also have recently fitted air conditioning.

Further benefits include CCTV for added peace of mind and a private driveway providing off road parking for at least two vehicles.

If you are searching for a detached family home that combines generous living space, a high quality finish and the peace of the Berkshire countryside while remaining within easy reach of local amenities, Oak Cottage could be the perfect next move.
