

Fairview, Alvington, GL15 6BH

An Exciting Opportunity to Create a Beautiful Village Home with Outstanding Potential

Nestled within the desirable village of Alvington, Fairview offers a rare opportunity for purchasers seeking a substantial refurbishment project with the chance to create a comfortable and characterful home in a sought-after rural location.

The property enjoys an enviable setting and presents excellent scope for modernisation and improvement throughout. With generous potential to reconfigure and enhance, Fairview is ideally suited to investors, developers, or owner-occupiers looking to add significant value while designing a home to meet their own requirements.

Internally, the accommodation requires extensive refurbishment, including the installation of a new bathroom and a comprehensive schedule of improvement works. These include significant damp-proofing measures, re-plastering and decoration throughout, replacement of ground floor concrete flooring, and a range of associated remedial works.

While substantial investment is required, the property's strong fundamentals, attractive village location, and future energy improvement potential combine to create a compelling opportunity. Once completed, Fairview has all the ingredients to become a delightful home offering modern comfort within a popular Gloucestershire village.
