The Old Station Works – Exceptional Three-Bedroom Home with Private Garden

The Old Station Works is an exquisite Grade II listed building that has been thoughtfully converted to create a collection of unique homes, perfectly blending period character with contemporary design. This substantial three-bedroom residence is one of the most impressive within the development, showcasing generous proportions, bespoke design features, and a luxurious modern finish throughout.

At the heart of the home is a magnificent, large lounge and dining room – a truly showstopping space filled with natural light, perfect for both relaxed family living and impressive entertaining. Its open-plan layout allows for generous dining and seating zones, ideal for statement furniture, with seamless flow into the high-specification kitchen with integrated appliances. The ground floor also features a separate utility room, a convenient cloakroom, and underfloor heating throughout for a touch of modern luxury.

The striking entrance hallway, with its feature atrium and elegant staircase, sets the tone for the home, leading to a first floor with a galleried landing, a beautiful master suite with en-suite shower room, and two further generously sized bedrooms, each with unique mezzanine levels. A luxurious five-piece family bathroom completes the accommodation.
