ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Offered to the market with no forward chain, this extended, double-fronted detached bungalow is located in the highly desirable village of Dunnington, offering generous living space and excellent potential for modernisation.

Set behind attractive, well-stocked front gardens, the property features a large sitting room with bay window, two spacious double bedrooms – one with a wall of fitted wardrobes – and a four-piece bathroom suite, including both a bath and separate shower. Additional living areas include a separate dining room, kitchen, and a light-filled sun room, perfect for enjoying views of the fully enclosed, low-maintenance rear garden with mature planting. An integral garage provides further flexibility for storage or potential conversion (subject to permissions).

The bungalow is ideally situated with just a short, level walk to the bus service, the Post Office, Costcutter, the Doctors' surgery and village pub. With its versatile layout, this property is ideal for those looking to create a forever home in a peaceful yet well connected village setting.
