Middleton on the Wolds is a highly picturesque and sought-after rural village in East Yorkshire, offering the perfect balance of countryside living and accessibility. Situated approximately 5 miles from Market Weighton and around 9 miles from Beverley, the village enjoys excellent commuter connections to Driffield, Hull, York and the M62 motorway, making it ideal for those needing to travel further afield. Surrounded by the rolling Yorkshire Wolds and with easy access to the Wolds Way, the area is particularly attractive to walkers and outdoor enthusiasts. Despite its peaceful setting, Middleton on the Wolds benefits from a strong local community and is well placed for a range of popular nearby pubs and restaurants, including the renowned Star at North Dalton, as well as convenient access to the East Coast.
