ABOUT THE PROPERTY

* VIDEO TOUR * A beautifully presented double-fronted Victorian farmhouse dating from circa 1850, this exceptional village home is offered in fantastic order throughout and combines period charm with high-quality modern living, making it a truly wonderful family residence. The property displays a wealth of traditional features including sash-style windows, exposed beams and character fireplaces, with accommodation that is both generous and well balanced. A stunning entrance hall sets the tone, featuring traditional tiled flooring, a classic radiator, bespoke fitted boot and cloaks storage, panelled walls and a staircase leading to the first floor. The sitting room enjoys an open cast-iron fire and attractive fireplace, while the main lounge offers a cosy log-burning stove with exposed beams and an archway leading through to the heart of the home, a beautifully fitted kitchen with central island, breakfast bar and integrated appliances. Further ground floor accommodation includes a dining room, rear lobby, utility room, and a downstairs WC fitted with a traditional suite, along with a basement ideal for a games room or additional storage. Upstairs, a spacious landing leads to well-proportioned bedrooms, with the main bedroom benefitting from a modern en-suite, complemented by a large family bathroom with both bath and shower. Externally, electric gates open onto a block-paved driveway providing ample parking and access to a double garage, with the added benefit of a stable block. The gardens extend to three sides of the property and are mainly laid to lawn with seating areas, low hedging, fencing and established boundary hedges offering excellent levels of privacy, with the garden enjoying a desirable south-facing aspect.
