Thornton Road

, Barnet, EN5 4JE

A beautifully presented 3 bedroom terraced period home situated in this popular turning behind 'The Spires' and within the catchment area for highly sought after local schools. The town centre is also within walking distance with it's multiple shopping leisure and transport facilities including the Northern Line underground. The property has been subject to considerable improvements by the current owner and benefits from contemporary accents whilst at the same time retaining much of its original character. The accommodation consists of an interconnecting lounge and dining room, fitted kitchen and a ground floor WC/shower room. To the first floor, there are 3 bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, there is a beautifully manicured rear garden with a detached office/gym. EPC: D
