72 Redfern Avenue, Hounslow, TW4 5LZ

FOR SALE:

The room sizes, especially the bedrooms are impressive. It is unusual to find two ample size bedrooms in a maisonette at this price level. Coupled with it being well presented and having the benefit of gas heating and double glazing make this a good opportunity to acquire either your first home or the next step on the property ladder. The property has no onward chain as it has been rented out and we would recommend an internal viewing if you think it could be for you.

OUTSIDE: The garden is set to the rear of the maisonette and is a good length with a lawned area and a timber shed towards the rear. The garden is well enclosed by a close boarded timber fence and benefits from a southerly aspect.

LOCATION:

Redfern Avenue is a no through road situated on the Whitton Hounslow borders and is located within the Richmond borough. Close by and within a short drive are Hounslow and Whitton town centres with their respective railway stations and Hounslow with its tube stations.
