28 Hounslow Road, Whitton, TW2 7EX

FOR SALE

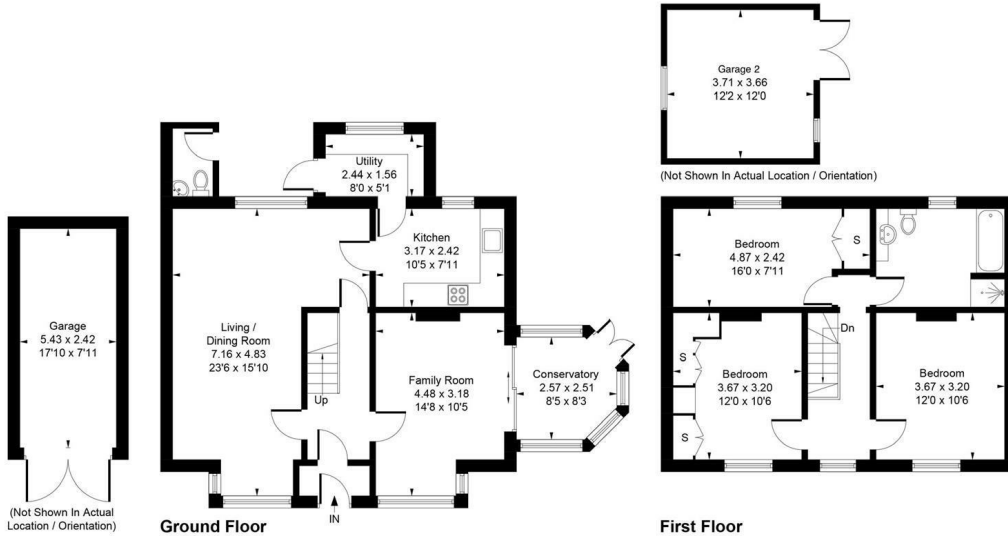

This wonderful home believed to have been built around 1868 offers much charm and a wealth of character but also provides much scope to reimagine and update to a contemporary style. The accommodation features an entrance hall leading to a front aspect family room which in turn opens onto an attractive conservatory. There is a spacious living room with open access to a rear aspect generous size dining room. The Kitchen/breakfast room is well proportioned and has a separate utility room. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms and a large family size bathroom with four piece suite including a shower cubicle. Outside there is a garage (middle garage within a block of three) and a further garage/workshop opposite the house. The rear garden is a particular feature offering much seclusion and privacy being laid mostly to lawn with mature flower and shrub borders, a patio area and outside WC. An appointment to view this delightful home is highly recommended to appreciate the unique setting and great potential of this exceptional, one of a kind property.

LOCATION:
