FOR SALE:

A charming first floor maisonette with two bedrooms, the second of which would make an ideal home office, the bathroom features a modern white suite and the open plan kitchen living room is a good size and benefits from a light southerly aspect. We highly recommend this extremely well cared for home which has clearly been subject to a good deal of care and attention by the current owner. Lease: yrs remaining 103yrs. commencement date of lease May 2003. Ground rent £10pa. Monthly service charge £27.20

OUTSIDE: The extensive gardens are a particular feature and it is rare for a property at this price level to have such a lovely size garden, which not only faces south, but also has been superbly maintained and is a delight to see.

LOCATION:

Collingwood Close is a little known residential road just off Nelson road and is within a short drive or walking distance of Whitton town centre, shops and railway station. The area is also convenient for local shops and schools.
