

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this well-proportioned detached bungalow is set in the sought-after village of Shinfield, just south of Reading. The property offers generous living space and potential to extend (STPP).

The accommodation includes an entrance hall, a spacious living room leading to a bright conservatory overlooking the garden, a separate dining room, and a kitchen with an adjoining utility room.

There are two double bedrooms with built-in storage, served by a family bathroom, plus additional hallway storage.

Outside, the property benefits from a private rear garden and driveway parking. Shinfield is popular for its community feel, local amenities and convenient access to the M4, Green Park and Reading mainline station with fast links to London.
