Located within a well-established development to the west of Reading town centre, this newly built split-level apartment offers contemporary living in a mature and sought-after setting.

The property boasts over 700 sq ft of beautifully finished accommodation, thoughtfully designed to maximise space and natural light. The lower level features a stunning 21ft open-plan living area with a sleek, integrated kitchen and direct access to a private balcony. A modern, well-appointed bathroom completes this floor, staircase leads to the upper level, where you'll find a generously sized 22ft bedroom, offering flexibility for additional workspace.

Further benefits include allocated parking, access to EV charging points, and the convenience of nearby transport links and amenities.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate this unique home.
