

Positioned within the sought-after Chatham Place development, this well presented one-bedroom apartment occupies a highly convenient central location. Finished in a contemporary style throughout and located on the second floor, the apartment is centred around an open-plan living space incorporating a well-appointed kitchen. A part-bay window draws in natural light from the north, while a sliding partition wall provides flexible access to the bedroom, enhancing the sense of space and adaptability.

A particular rarity within the development, the apartment also benefits from an allocated parking space within the secure undercroft car park.

Residents of Chatham Place enjoy access to impressive communal amenities, including a landscaped courtyard garden with seating areas and raised planters, an on-site concierge service, lift access and a video entry system. The location is exceptionally well placed for Reading's mainline station, as well as the extensive shopping, dining and riverside leisure amenities of The Oracle.
