

Forming part of a Georgian building of Bath stone within the Eldon Road Conservation Area, this ground-floor apartment combines period character with contemporary comfort. Converted by TA Fisher in 2006, the home includes a dual-aspect living and dining area, a separate kitchen with integrated appliances, and two double bedrooms, the main with an en suite and the second opening onto a private terrace. Additional features include gated parking and gas central heating. Perfectly positioned for Reading station, the Royal Berkshire Hospital and The Oracle, the apartment is offered with no onward chain.
