

Situated just south of Reading town centre in the highly sought-after Bewley Homes development, this spacious semi-detached property is offered to the market with no onward chain. The location is ideal for modern living, providing easy access to a wealth of amenities including several retail parks, leisure centres, and major supermarkets. Excellent transport links are close at hand, with Green Park station, Junction 11 of the M4, and a frequent local bus service all nearby.

The property itself features a generously sized living room, a contemporary kitchen fitted with integrated appliances, and a convenient ground-floor cloakroom. Upstairs, there are three double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with an ensuite shower room, along with a stylish family bathroom. Outside, the Westerly-facing rear garden offers a peaceful retreat, complete with a patio area leading to a well-maintained lawn which is ideal for outdoor entertaining.
