Designed and built by the current owners in 1990, this impressive four-bedroom home in Manor Gardens is offered to the market for the first time.

Approached via a private gated driveway, the house is set within beautifully established grounds, with sweeping lawns, mature trees and a raised ornamental pond. Extending to approximately 3,800 sq ft, the house sits within around 1.14 acres. A charming gazebo and a clay-tiled outbuilding, currently fitted as a kitchen enhance the property's exceptional outdoor setting.

Distinguished by its timbered elevations and inset herringbone brickwork, the property's attention to detail continues throughout.

A reception hall opens to a central hallway with an oak staircase leading to the first floor. The principal drawing room enjoys a triple aspect and centres around an impressive inglenook fireplace with a wood-burning stove and an adjoining garden room perfectly positioned to capture the morning sun.

The kitchen and breakfast room are arranged alongside a formal dining room, creating an ideal setting for entertaining. Additional reception spaces include a family room and conservatory, offering flexibility for modern living and views across the gardens.

The first floor has four bedrooms, including principal and guest suites, both with en-suite bathrooms. A family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms and enjoys a peaceful outlook over the surrounding grounds.

A detached two-storey barn near the entrance offers excellent potential for home working, creative studio space, parking or ancillary accommodation, subject to any necessary consents. A four-car garage provides additional parking and storage.
