

Positioned on Franklin Street, moments from Reading town centre, this four-bedroom shared house presents a considered balance of design, practicality, and ongoing income potential. Currently arranged as a 4 Bedroom HMO, the property is offered with tenants in situ, providing a ready-made operational model for investors seeking an established, low-maintenance asset in a strong central location.

Inside, the home has been thoughtfully configured to suit modern shared living, featuring a contemporary fitted kitchen with space for dining, two sleek shower rooms, and four generous bedrooms, each finished in calm, neutral tones. The layout creates a sense of privacy while maintaining a connected, communal flow at the heart of the property.

Outside, a compact courtyard garden provides an easy-care space for relaxation. The surrounding area is defined by its proximity to Reading Station, local amenities, and the town's thriving professional and student communities.
