

This classic 1930's bay fronted semi-detached home should appeal to buyers looking for a project in a sought-after location. The accommodation comprises 2 separate reception rooms and kitchen on the ground floor and three bedrooms and family bathroom to the first floor. There is driveway parking and a single garage and to the rear is a south-facing garden extending to 170'. The house is well-positioned for regular bus services and ease of access to local business parks and the A329M link to the M4. There are local shops including a Marks and Spencers food hall on Shepherds House Hill roundabout and Woodley precinct has a comprehensive range of shops and restaurants. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain.
