

A well-proportioned one-bedroom second-floor apartment set within a quiet residential cul-de-sac just outside Reading town centre. Set back behind established planting and mature trees, the property offers a calm residential feel while remaining within reach of Reading West, the town centre and wider rail connections from Reading, including Elizabeth line and Great Western Railway services. With a bright reception/dining room, separate kitchen, bathroom, residents' off-street parking and no onward chain, this is an appealing first purchase, downsize or investment option with scope for cosmetic improvement.
