De Beauvoir Road

£350,000

Reading, RG1 5NP

3 1 1 D

A bay-fronted Victorian inner-terrace property, ideally situated within a popular residential setting in the sought-after University area. This well-proportioned property is used as an investment property and benefits from being Article 4 compliant with a Certificate for Existing Lawful use of the property as a 4 bedroom C4 small HMO. The accommodation comprises two separate reception rooms, a fitted kitchen and a ground-floor bathroom, with three bedrooms arranged over the upper floor. The internal configuration would allow for the potential for additional expansion by way of a loft room, subject to obtaining the relevant consents. Externally, the property features a low-maintenance rear garden with artificial lawn, providing an attractive and practical outdoor space. The property is conveniently located for the University campus and a range of local amenities, including convenience stores, leisure facilities and transport links, all within easy reach. The town centre, mainline railway station and hospital are also within walking distance. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain and vacant possession.
