Chain Cottage, Wokingham Road, Reading, RG10 0RU

£685,000

A charming three-bedroom period cottage, believed to date back to the 18th century, thoughtfully extended and updated to create a stylish and characterful family home. Set in the sought-after village of Hurst, the property offers a perfect balance of tranquillity and convenience, surrounded by open countryside and close to the River Loddon and Dinton Pastures Country Park. The accommodation blends period character with contemporary design. A spacious living room features exposed beams, brickwork and a wood-burning stove, with oak flooring throughout and an open staircase with glass balustrade. The kitchen/dining room forms the heart of the home with a lantern roof and bi-fold doors opening onto the garden. A separate snug or guest room provides flexibility, alongside a cloakroom/utility room. Upstairs are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern bathroom. The rear garden is a standout feature, with a paved terrace leading to a level lawn, additional seating areas, and a high degree of privacy. The property also benefits from driveway parking and a 20ft garage with attached workshop. Hurst is a highly regarded village with a strong community feel, well-served by local amenities and excellent schooling, including St Nicholas' C of E Primary School and the independent Dolphin School.
