

Situated within the South Park Conservation Area in the highly sought-after University area of Reading, this attractive period semi-detached home combines character, convenience, and future potential. Set behind a walled frontage, the property benefits from generous driveway parking and offers excellent scope for extension or reconfiguration, subject to the usual planning consents. Internally, the accommodation is well balanced, featuring an impressive living room with wood-burning stove, complemented by a separate dining room with doors opening onto a private, low-maintenance garden, ideal for both entertaining and everyday living. The first floor provides two bedrooms, with the principal bedroom enjoying the benefit of an en suite, creating a comfortable and practical layout.

The location is a key highlight, with the University campus, Royal Berkshire Hospital, and scenic walks around Whiteknights Lake all close at hand. The area is well served by a selection of highly regarded state and independent schools, while Reading town centre, including the mainline railway station and the riverside shops and restaurants of The Oracle, is within walking distance. Excellent transport connections include local bus routes, easy access to the M4 via the A329(M), nearby business parks and Earley railway station within convenient reach.
