A charming and spacious five-bedroom family home occupying a secluded position in the popular village of Burghfield, directly opposite woodland. The property offers well-planned accommodation of approximately 2,029 sq ft, arranged over two floors. The ground floor comprises an entrance hall, generous reception room, dining room, kitchen, utility room, three bedrooms and family bathroom. Upstairs are two further bedrooms, the principal a master suite with impressive proportions and ensuite bathroom facilities. The second bedroom is currently a home office working space leading into useful eaves storage and a large fully boarded attic. Outside, there is a detached garage with adjoining storage, while the property's tucked-away position and woodland outlook provide a lovely sense of privacy. An appealing village home offering generous accommodation, excellent versatility and a peaceful setting, while remaining conveniently positioned for Reading and the surrounding countryside. Offered for sale with no onward chain.
