

A beautifully reimagined period semi-detached house offering refined contemporary living across four meticulously curated levels, located in a desirable residential pocket close to the heart of town. This elegant home has undergone an extensive and sensitive renovation, seamlessly blending original character with carefully considered modern interventions. The result is a space of rare quality and quiet sophistication, finished to an exacting specification throughout.

At ground level, two generous reception rooms offer flexibility for both intimate and open-plan living, defined by clean lines and abundant natural light. To the rear, a striking Schüller kitchen and breakfast space sits beneath a vaulted ceiling – a dramatic architectural moment that creates a sense of volume and calm. High-spec integrated appliances are discreetly incorporated, allowing form and function to work in harmony. Twin sets of bi-folding doors open directly onto a secluded internal courtyard and a beautifully landscaped south-facing garden. The location balances residential tranquillity with convenience. The house is a short walk from Reading West station and is well connected by local bus routes, placing both town centre amenities and excellent transport links within easy reach.

Garden

Bi-folding doors from the kitchen open onto a serene internal courtyard, where large-format floor tiles mirror those found inside, creating an effortless continuation between interior and exterior. This cleverly conceived outdoor space becomes an extension of the kitchen, a sheltered spot for morning coffee or quiet reflection while a discreet side gate provides direct access to the front of the house.

To the rear, the landscaped garden faces south, with a paved terrace, finished in the same tile as the interior and courtyard, establishes a seamless visual rhythm and offers an ideal setting for al fresco dining or evening gatherings. Steps descend to a carefully curated lawn bordered by raised, rendered shrub beds, equipped with a discreet irrigation system that ensures low-maintenance greenery and a heightened sense of privacy. A stepping-stone pathway draws the eye to the rear of the garden, where a set of steps ascends to a raised deck crafted from composite materials, a contemporary seating area complete with integrated storage beneath, perfectly oriented to catch the last light of day.
