This well-presented studio apartment is situated in Calcot, within the established Beansheaf Development. The location provides a practical and convenient base, offering excellent transport connections. Junction 12 of the M4 is close at hand, and Theale and Tilehurst train stations are easily accessible, providing straightforward routes into Reading, London, and the surrounding areas. Regular bus services also operate nearby, further enhancing daily travel options.

A variety of local amenities are within walking distance, including a range of shops and everyday conveniences. The surrounding area also offers pleasant leisure opportunities, with attractive river and countryside walks just minutes away, making it a suitable setting for both relaxation and outdoor activities.

The property benefits from double-glazed windows, gas radiator heating, an allocated parking space, and well maintained communal grounds. The apartment is offered to the market with no onward chain, providing a straightforward and efficient purchase opportunity.
