£995,000

Set within an exclusive Charles Church development in Reading's sought-after University area, this four-bedroom home is one of just 30 houses arranged in a peaceful, park-like setting near the Royal Berkshire Hospital.

Designed for modern family living, the property offers elegant proportions and a practical layout centred around a spacious open-plan kitchen, dining and family room. Filled with natural light, this impressive space opens onto the garden through two sets of glazed double doors and features integrated appliances, quartz worktops and a breakfast bar.

To the front of the house, the sitting room enjoys a southerly aspect overlooking a small green, while a separate utility room and cloakroom complete the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged across the first floor. The principal bedroom has an en-suite shower room, while a cleverly designed Jack-and-Jill bathroom serves two further bedrooms. A separate family bathroom with a shower cubicle completes the upper level.

The rear garden has matured beautifully and provides a private and established outdoor setting, with a paved terrace for al fresco dining and entertaining leading onto a generous lawned garden beyond.

The house is well placed for access to the University of Reading campus, the Royal Berkshire Hospital and a number of highly regarded state and independent schools. Reading town centre is within walking distance, offering mainline rail services to London.
