

This well-proportioned first floor apartment occupies an elevated position within this handsome Grade II listed Georgian building, with impressive full-height sash windows overlooking the communal grounds.

Located adjacent to the University of Reading Great Hall and close to the Royal Berkshire Hospital, Albion Terrace is set back behind railings and features well-kept communal grounds. The accommodation comprises an elegant reception room with feature fireplace and generous ceiling heights, two bedrooms, kitchen, and bathroom. The apartment further benefits from one allocated parking space approached via secure electric gates.

The appeal of the development is enhanced by being within walking distance of the Oracle shopping centre and Reading mainline station with Elizabeth line services. Suitable for owner-occupiers or investors, offered with no onward chain.
