

Set along a quietly elegant, tree-lined address in Reading's highly regarded University area, this detached Arts & Crafts family home blends period character with modern, light-filled living. Occupying an established plot of approximately 0.23 acres, the property enjoys a beautifully mature rear garden extending to around 150 feet, offering a notable sense of privacy. A standout feature is the garden studio, complete with a mezzanine level, ideal as a home office, creative space or guest retreat. Internally, the accommodation is both flexible and welcoming. The triple-aspect living room is centred around a feature fireplace, while the dining room opens seamlessly to the outdoors via bi-fold doors, leading onto a glazed-sided raised timber deck, perfect for entertaining and relaxed family living.

The kitchen-breakfast room combines warmth and practicality with solid wood work surfaces and a traditional butler's sink, complemented by a walk-in cloakroom and a ground-floor WC. Upstairs, the home offers four well-proportioned bedrooms, making it ideally suited to growing families. Perfectly positioned, the property lies within easy reach of an excellent selection of state and independent schools, with the University campus, Royal Berkshire Hospital and local shops all within walking distance. For commuters, M4 access and local bus routes are close at hand, providing strong connections to the wider region. A characterful, well-balanced home in one of Reading's most desirable residential locations.
