

31, Marks Road
Wokingham
Berkshire, RG41 1NR

£625,000 Freehold

This smartly presented versatile four bedroom terraced house is set on the popular Joel Park development close to Wokingham town centre and local schools. The accommodation comprises entrance hall, cloakroom, spacious kitchen/dining room, living room leading into family room and garden room. There are four generous first floor bedrooms and two bathrooms.

- Versatile family home
- Three reception areas
- Well stocked rear garden
- Over 1500 square feet (inc. garage & outbuilding)
- Two first floor bathrooms
- Garage and driveway parking

Outside the pretty, well stocked rear garden is enclosed by wooden fencing, laid mainly to lawn with an area of patio across the rear of the house with a wooden pergola above and a pond with rockery on the left. There are mature borders hosting a variety of plants and flowers with a wooden shed in the left corner. To the front, there is a shingled driveway, providing parking for several vehicles, as well as an integral garage.

Marks Road is situated on the favoured Joel Park which is a popular development built by Laing Homes in the late 1960's. There are a variety of houses ranging from three bedroom semi detached properties, many of which have subsequently been extended, and three bedroom detached houses and chalets. The area benefits from being within walking distance of Wokingham town centre, train station and close to the amenities of Emmbrook.
