Just Centro's Opinion...

Immaculately presented 5-bedroom detached house nestled a desirable and quiet road in South Cheam. Cheam village is within walking distance, offering a variety of restaurants and shops, and Cheam Train Station provides direct access to Central London (London Bridge and London Victoria).

The property comprises of a spacious hallway, living room, dining room leading onto an elegant conservatory overlooking a south west facing garden. A modern fully fitted kitchen with integrated branded appliances, a downstairs shower room with WC, separate utility room and access to garage.

The upstairs comprises a master bedroom with ensuite shower room and three further double bedrooms, a single bedroom/ study and a family bathroom. Finally, a loft ladder leads to a spacious and luminous boarded loft storage. The house further benefits from a large driveway for 2 or 3 cars and rear private access to a rugby pitch.

Ideally located, the home is within close proximity to sought after primary and secondary schools - 0.1 miles from Cuddington Croft Primary School and 0.5 miles from Nonsuch High School, with Sutton High School, St. Dunstan's CofE Primary and The Avenue Primary School also within a mile.

Please note that the monthly rental price includes the cost of gardening maintenance and external window cleaning.
