171, Rugby Road, Milverton, Leamington Spa

A stylishly presented Regency four bedroomed spacious townhouse, conveniently located just North East of the town centre, in this well regarded area.

Briefly Comprising:

Vestibule hall, entrance hallway, sitting room, large dining room/family room semi open plan to shaker style fitted kitchen. Converted basement with utility and ground floor cloakroom. First floor landing, large double bedroom/potential sitting room. Two further double bedrooms and refitted shower room. Second floor landing, with master bedroom with fitted wardrobes and large family bathroom. Plastered attic space with pull down ladder. Attractive fore garden set behind railings, walled and enclosed low maintenance rear garden, with detached garden office/gym and store. Gas radiator heating. Partial double glazing.

Rugby Road

Set behind this most elegant rendered facade, lies this impressive Regency townhouse. The property is thoughtfully presented and styled throughout, fusing character features with modern living. The front of the property has a cosy sitting room separated with glazed Crittall style doors from the open plan central space which is currently laid out as a dining room, but offers flexibility, with glazed stairwell to the basement and broad opening to the hand painted shaker style kitchen.

The bedrooms over the next two floors are well proportioned and laid out, complemented by two stylish well fitted bathrooms.

To the front of the property the period windows have been updated and now incorporate double glazed sealed units. This is further supported by the flexible garden/studio which is currently split into office/gym and garden store, and offers further scope for further working from home space.
